The Lamborghini Urus Performante is an audacious super-SUV that shatters expectations. Its 4.0L twin-turbo V8 launches 657 hp and 627 lb-ft, rocketing to 62 mph in about 3.3 seconds with a top speed around 190 mph—utterly thrilling for its size. On twisty roads, its steel spring suspension, rear wheel steering, and sharp chassis deliver jaw-dropping grip and agility. But the trade-off is a noticeably firm ride over rough surfaces. Inside, carbon fiber, suede, and aluminum trim with dramatic Lamborghini cockpit flair elevate the experience. Despite some Audi DNA, it remains a bombastic, high-performance statement with supercar speed and brutal luxury.
